

The Reston Chorale

Robert E. Simon Jr. Music Scholarships

The Reston Chorale will award Robert E. Simon Jr. Music Scholarships to up to eight high school and/or college students during the 2021-22 season.

Selected students will sing with The Reston Chorale throughout the season.

Financial scholarships will be awarded based upon the number of concert segments each student successfully completes and performs.

Inaugural scholarship recipients: Mary Galvin, Mohammed Khan and Rebecca Gustafson with Robert E. Simon Jr., founder of Reston and founding member of The Reston Chorale. (Photo credit: Michael Olson, March 2015)

Scholarship Awards

- High School Students: Up to $300 annually ($75 per concert segment) for up to four years. Awarded at end of the concert season.
- College Students: Up to $500 annually ($125 per concert segment). Awarded at end of the concert season.

2021-22 Concert Schedule

- Saturday, December 4, 2021: The Wonder of the Season with Brass of the Potomac and Robert E. Simon Jr. Scholarship Alumni
- Sunday, February 27, 2022: Music of Czech Composers, featuring Antonín Dvořák's Mass in D Major
- Saturday, May 7, 2022: Appalachian Spring, featuring Carol Barnett's The World Beloved: A Bluegrass Mass

For More Information

- Email Membership@RestonChorale.org for more info or to request an audition.